E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

Clean off the snow as it falls.

The cold weather has been very severe on the young lambs.

The cold weather and the caucuses seem to have come to stay.

A comet has made its appearance in the southern heavens.

Ulcerated sore throat is quite a common complaint in this city.

A great deal of tobacco is being shipped from this point to Louisville just now.

A lodge of Good Templars has been organized among the colored people in this city.

Col. Denis A. Lynch is being urged by some of his friends to become a candidate for constable.

A number of persons went from this city to Eminence Tuesday night to hear Hon. Geo. R. Wendling's lecture.

Clean off the snow before your own door before you complain of the condition of the sidewalk in front of the property of any one else.

The Legislature has been in session nearly thirty days and scarcely thirty bills have been considered by the Senate during that time.

Mr. Geo. W. Parrent, father of Mrs. H. S. Banta, of this county, died suddenly at his home in Louisville Monday of heart disease.

There has been so much weather suitable for sleighing the last few weeks that those who have sleighs seem to have wearied of the amusement.

Drs. Hudson & Bryant have removed their office from the old Strobridge residence to the building next to Messrs. W. A. Gaines & Co.'s new warehouse, on Main Street.

A great many persons have had their flowers to freeze in their pits, and most of the vegetables which were buried or left in the ground have suffered the same fate.

Judge J. G. Morrison, grandfather of Mrs. H. F. Duncan, of this city, died at his home in Georgetown on Sunday night, aged 74 years. In 1835-'6 he was a dry goods merchant in this city.

The thin corn shuck, muskrat, and trees shedding their leaves first from the top have proven failures as weather prophets, but some of the goose bones seem to have hit it square, so far this winter.

The old Deposit Bank building, occupied by Messrs. Payne & Berry, is offered for sale in another column. As this is one of the best renting pieces of property in this city it will be a good investment for some one.

Persons who lost pictures during the recent fire on St. Clair street may perhaps find them at the barber shop of Henry Samuels. He has several among his effects which are not his and desires the owners to call and get them.

Dr. A. Goldstein, the optician, of Louisville, has his office at Mrs. S. J. Bohannon's, on Ann street, and will remain in this city until the 31st inst. Persons desiring his services will find it to their interest to call on him at his office.

Addresses on woman's rights were delivered before the Legislature on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons by Mrs. Clay, of Richmond, President of the Woman's Rights Association of this State, Mrs. Bennett, of Richmond, and Mrs. Haggart, of Chicago.

The Henry County Court on Monday refused to appropriate $1,800 to build a bridge across Flat Creek.

Henry Samuels, the barber, is fitting up the room on St. Clair street formerly occupied by Col. R. P. Pepper and will reopen his shop there.

Dick Shuck's confession is in demand just now. We have had a call for it from Kansas and the Henry County Local man also wants a copy.

There will be a meeting of Frankfort Lodge, No. 10, Knights of Honor, on Tuesday evening next for the transaction of important business.

Col. Bennett H. Young has been elected President of the Louisville Exposition Company, and another grand exposition this fall seems to be an assured fact.

Gen. Fayette Hewitt, while returning home from his office, Saturday night slipped and fell on the pavement and broke the small bone of his right leg just above the ankle.

Stock in the little steam yacht is below par just at present. In fact it seems to be somewhat of a white elephant as it lies upon the ice gorge above the St. Clair street bridge.

Mrs. Dallas Crutcher started to church Sunday morning and when crossing Ann street from the Capital Hotel, she slipped on the icy crossing and fell, breaking the bones of her right forearm.

Deputy Sheriff John Dickson has so far recovered from the wounds accidentally inflicted upon himself in this city several weeks since as to be able to leave for his home in Leslie county Tuesday.

Prof. Josiah H. Shinn, formerly of Bridgeport, this county, is now principal of the Public School at Russellville, Arkansas, and has commenced the publication of a magazine at that place called "The Arkansas Teacher."

Hon. Geo. R. Wendling delivered a splendid lecture at the Opera House Monday night before a very select audience. All who heard him pronounce his effort grand, and those who failed to attend missed hearing one of the finest speakers now upon the American platform.

Mr. S. Black announces in this issue his return to the coal business, and invites all his old friends to call and see him. He has located at his old stand, near the Railroad bridge but orders left at Mr. Joe LeCompte's drug store, by any of his South Side friends will receive prompt attention.

There seems to be no let up in the weather. A thaw comes one day and we begin to hope the backbone is broken, but that night it snows again and turns cold. Uncle Jep Robison says we are to have cold weather until the first of April, and it looks like he knows what he is talking about.

Notice.

The members of the Republican County Committee are requested to meet at the office of Judge W. H. Sneed on Monday, February 4th, 1884. A full attendance is requested. By order of J. C. JACKSON, Chairman.

Notwithstanding the cold weather one of the largest audiences we have seen at the Opera House since its opening was out Thursday night to witness the presentation of "Pop" by Rice's Surprise Party, and everyone went away feeling better for having been there. The entertainment was first class, being brimfull of fun, and the man who did not enjoy it was certainly hard to please. The singing and acting of Misses Dempsey, Fuller and Vincent was excellent, while Messrs. Fitzgerald, Hettenger and Fletcher were irresistible. The company deserves a full house wherever they may appear.

Henry Baxter, of Mibway, is visiting Mr. Edmund Lee.

Miss Ruth Robinson's school at Fairview is progressing finely.

Mr. John Warren visiting friends near Shelbyville the first of the week.

There was a debate at Fairview school house Saturday night, January 19th, on the question Indian and Negro.

Died.—Sunday Jan. 13th, Mr Larkin Chisholm, aged 84 years. His remains were interred in the family burying ground.

"I'll teach you how to tear your pants," said a cross parent, swinging a strap, "I'll teach you." "Don't hit me, pa, I know how already; just look at em."

Owing to the bad weather and whooping cough the children of Ball Knob cannot get out, consequently Mr James Harrod has to suspend his school for a week.

When old Rusty went to Shelby to raise a winter crop he must have been massacred by a big tobacco worm. Guess that is the reason we have not heard from him lately. JUMBO.

Get one of Wood's patent carpet strips for your outside door. They keep out water and will not rot. For sale by Whitesides & McEwan.

Buy a truss from Joe LeCompte.

First class board wanted by a quiet gentleman and wife, in a private family of refinement and where there are no boarders. Location central, best references. Address "A," care of this office.

When a remedy has proven itself to be a cure for consumption and perfect lung restorer, it should be kept in every well regulated home. We refer to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, a single dose of which will cure an ordinary cough or cold. A few bottles will cure consumption. It is very pleasant to take.

BOARDING.—A few boarders by the day week or month. Wanted by Mrs R. B. McKee, at LeCompte house, near Iron Bridge.

The people of Frankfort should patronize the new wholesale and retail coal firm of S. & J. H. Told, for they have come to stay. Office at H. R. Williams' grocery, South-side, where Mr. Peter E. Told can always be found ready to wait on customers.

Is your system running down? Is there a feeling of decrepitude taking possession of you? Are the functions of your digestive and urinary organs impaired? Is your blood bad? Does sores and pimples trouble you? Do you suffer from aches and pains? Are you weak, and does the least exertion give you fatigue? Beware! Regain perfect health by using Dr. Guyssott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla.

Wood's patent carpet strip keeps out water and will not rot, just the thing for outside doors. For sale by Whitesides & McEwan.

FOR SALE.—A good second-hand upright boiler, 8 by 3ft. Apply to Ferguson & Meek.

For scrofula, syphilitic disorders, thin and watery blood, sluggish liver (indicated by poor digestions) weak kidneys (indicated by urinary sediments), diseased mucous membrane (indicated by both nasal and urinary catarrh, inflamed eyelids, etc.), use Dr. Guyssott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. It gradually rebuilds a broken down constitution and restores robust health and strength to every part. No other remedy equals it.
